

Gray & Cole, Ward Hill, Mass. 1957

HEMEROCALLIS (DAYLILY).

Yellow, orange, coppery-pink, brown, or red flowers. Thrive in part shade. Using several varieties, bloom from June to August.

	E a c h.
	1	3	5
APRICOT. Very early apricot-yellow.	$.50	.45	.40
BLACK LEOPARD. Glossy, gleaming black-red.	3.00
BRIGHT. Deep rose to light red.	3.50
CANYON PURPLE. Red with purple sheen.	4.00
CRIMSON PIRATE. Carmine red.	2.00
EVELYN CLAAR. Fine orchid pink.	4.50
FULVA KWANSO VIRGINICA. Double Tawny Daylily.	.75
FULVA ROSEA. (ROSALIND). Coppery-pink.	.50	.45	.40
GOLDENI. Deep orange.	.50	.45	.40
HEATHER ROSE. Cream flushed peach-pink.	.60	.55	.50
HESPERUS. Best medium yellow. Large wide-open flowers.	.60	.55	.50
HOWDY. Bicolor, yellow and orchid purple.	2.00
HYPERION. Pale yellow. Large and fine.	.50	.45	.40
JEAN. Brilliant bicolor, red and orange. Late.	.75	.70	.65
MABEL FULLER. Velvety cardinal red.	2.00
MINNIE. Velvety mahogany red. Rich color.	.50	.45	.40
OPHIR. Best golden yellow. Large and fine.	.50	.45	.40
PAINTED LADY. Dusky orange, slightly ruffled. Noted for large size and heavy texture.	1.00	.90
PURPLE WATERS. Wine red or brown-red.	.60	.55	.50
SHOOTING STAR. Pale light cream yellow.	6.00

Add 20% for postage or we can ship express collect.

